

Referral Prisons

Earlier intervention with peer navigation streamlines service delivery and reduces pressure on mainstream services

People are supported comprehensively, including while waiting to access external services

Transitional Support Workers

Residential drug treatment

Health & Social Support

Housing

Private rental via head leasing arrangement

Peer navigation, support & mentoring

Skills development & qualifications

Mainstream employment pathways

Education and Activities

Employment and Social Enterprise

Social Connection

Increased engagement due to peer model leads to better health and social outcomes

Reductions in reincarceration changes lives and communities

